Tailor Made

While there are several different standard options for electric fencing your particular requirements might be for a custom electric fence. We can propose and design custom electric fencing for your property, and if you are satisfied with the proposal we can complete the installation.

Fence On Gate

Electric fences are used in most countries, particularly where there is little vegetation to short circuit the fence or where the costs of security personnel is high in relation to automated security equipment. The electric pulse is a strong deterrent for criminals.

Agriculture Fence

Electric fences are used in most countries, particularly where there is little vegetation to short circuit the fence or where the costs of security personnel is high in relation to automated security equipment. The electric pulse is a strong deterrent for criminals.
